SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

Four hundred thousand Chinese Communist troops moved to Manchuria from the Tientsin-Pukow railroad area, and 300,000 troops from the Shanghai-Nanking area.*

25X1A

* [REDACTED] Comment. Presumably this implies that the latter also moved to Manchuria.

25X1X

[REDACTED] Comment. It is believed that the Communists expect the severe winter climate to seriously impair the effectiveness of United Nations troops in Korea. An all-out effort will be made to hold the North Korean line until winter sets in, when a push south can be made with troops especially trained for winter fighting.
